Test 2 (An Inspector Calls)

Student Name: ..... ID: ..... Section: .....

(15 points, 1 hour) "The miserable have no other medicine," says Shakespeare's Claudio in Measure for Measure, "But only hope." In An Inspector Calls, who is/are miserable? What are his/her/their hopes? Discuss how these hopes drive the conflict(s) in the play. In your response, explain what literary elements Priestley uses that highlight the characters' state of hopefulness or hopelessness. Also, state whether you think hope is crushed or sustained as the play reaches its final scene. Support your points using evidence from the text.
